Setting An Example

All City Youth worship team members, no matter their age or experience, are considered leaders to other students. Because of this, worship members are challenged and expected to set an example of godly character, both on and off the stage, and beyond the Youth or Sunday service.

This includes:

- Refraining from gossip, complaining, quarrels, screaming, outbursts of anger, sexual immorality, and indulging in any mind-altering substances.
- Demonstrates the fruit of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Galatians 5:22-23
- Demonstrates modesty in attitude and attire - 1 Peter 3:3-4, 1 Peter 5:5
- Guards their words to honor the Lord - Psalm 19:14, 141:3; Proverbs 10:19
- Sets an example of seeking the Lord through active participation in any service they attend - Sunday, Youth Services when not scheduled, or Special Services - Deuteronomy 6:5, 1 Chronicles 16:11, Jeremiah 29:13,

Our Worship Model

THEREFORE, I URGE YOU, BROTHERS AND SISTERS, IN VIEW OF GOD'S MERCY, TO OFFER YOUR BODIES AS A LIVING SACRIFICE, HOLY AND PLEASING TO GOD—THIS IS YOUR TRUE AND PROPER WORSHIP.

ROMANS 12:1

We worship God not just through singing or playing an instrument, but our daily lives. We are called to continually offer ourselves to God as an act of worship, so we worship daily through our words, choices, actions, and how we treat others.

Onboarding

Each prospective worship team member:

- Begins through an audition process that includes:
  - A prepared song
  - A brief paragraph with their written testimony
  - A statement on what worship means to them
- Receives a worship team manual to overview expectations
- Is onboarded onto Planning Center and scheduled
- Begins a trial period of 3 weeks/instances of being scheduled
- After 3 times of being scheduled, meets with the leader for a check-in, to discuss their experience and if they would like to continue.
- If both leader and new volunteer agree that this is a good fit, the new volunteer is officially a member of the worship team.

Thank you...

Whether your time of service is brief or long-term, we encourage you to maintain a heart of worship, that pleases our King.
